STRIKERS QUIET.

The Predicted Clash Didn't Occur, as Miners Did Try to Work.

MANY MORE MEN ARE IDLE

Owners Claim that Men Returned to Work but the Facts Point Otherwise.

SHIPMENTS ARE LESS

Reports of the Advance in Prices of Coal are Received From All Sections and Shipments are Growing Less Day by Day.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 24.—Instead of expected clash between the troops and striking mineworkers in the Schuylkill region today a peaceful calm pervaded the region, and there was not the slightest disorder for the soldiers to be called upon to quell. While the operators claim that a number of their employes returned to work at the mines in the Schuylkill region it was early in the day evident that the operations did not assure the activity the mineowners had yesterday anticipated and indications tonight are that tomorrow will find more idle collieries than at any time since the strike began.

The soldiers moved over the roads leading to the collieries in Schuylkill county from early morning and thus afforded protection to those desirous of returning to work.

The strike leaders claim many additions to their ranks and President Mitchell himself estimates that the striking force was augmented today to the extent of 1,800 to 2,000.

Meantime coal shipments from the mines are daily growing less and reports of advances in prices for the commodity are received from all sections.

A TERRIBLE CATASTROPHE.

A Barn was Hurl'd Into a Saloon and Sixteen Persons Were Buried Under the Heap of Debris.

Faribault, Min., Sept. 24.—Meager details have just reached here of a terrible catastrophe which visited the village of Morristown, ten miles west of here, shortly before 6 o'clock this evening. The village was struck by a cyclone and a barn was raised in the air and dropped directly on top of Paul Gatzke's saloon, where sixteen persons had taken refuge from the storm. The saloon collapsed and all the occupants were buried in the debris. At present it is said that eight dead bodies and three injured persons have been taken from the ruins.

New York, Sept. 24.—Wall street is usually able to maintain its equilibrium, but it was staggered today when Louis V. Bell, a broker, offered to put up $100,000 McKinley money against $50,000 Bryan money. Up to the time the exchange closed the offer had not been accepted.

Chairman Babcock repeats the same warning he gave at the beginning of the campaign—the probability of a democratic house of republicans have controlled the house for three terms and it has been rare that a party has exceeded this period of ascendancy in the house.

In spite of the political rabies now marking the conduct of many prominent persons, the idea seems to be growing with the people that the Republic will live if either Bryan or McKinley is elected.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS

Will First be Instituted Before the Punishment of the Instigators of the Outrage to Germany's Minister and Subjects.

London, Sep. 25.—A semi-official announcement has been issued in St. Petersburg that the European cabinets are engaged in an endeavor to induce Germany to abandon her demand for the surrender of the instigators of the anti-foreign outrages as a preliminary to peace negotiations. The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Chronicle asserts that Russia's reply to the German note is very friendly, but that, although it appears to consent to Germany's proposal, it practically disapproves by asking whether it would not be best to open peace negotiations first and to make the punishment of the instigators of the outrages the first discussion. According to the Berlin correspondent of the Daily Express, Germany will make a new proposal, namely, that the great powers form an international court to try the Chinese officials accused of complicity in the outrages.

Ardmore, Sept. 24.—James Vermillion was placed in jail here on a warrant charging him with the killing of Joe Neimischek, which occurred recently near Purcell.
